

CDA Position on Pit-and-Fissure Sealants

The Canadian Dental Association supports the appropriate and selective use of sealants based on caries risk assessment and diagnosis by a dentist. Sealants are an important component of a comprehensive preventive program which includes nutritional counseling, optimal fluoride exposure, good oral hygiene and regular dental examinations.

CDA Board of Directors

Approved: February 2005

Revised: November 2012