DEAN School of Dentistry

Creighton University, a Catholic, Jesuit institution, invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean, School of Dentistry. Founded in 1878, Creighton University enrolls approximately 6,300 students and is consistently ranked one of the finest comprehensive universities in the nation by U. S. News and World Report. The School of Dentistry enrolls approximately 325 students and is one of nine schools and colleges within Creighton University including schools of Business, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The Dean of the School of Dentistry provides the academic and administrative leadership of the school and reports directly to the Vice President for Health Sciences. The Dean will have an exceptional opportunity to continue the tradition of excellence in teaching and dental care identified with the School of Dentistry, to advance the school's status as a leader among private and public academic institutions in research and academic scholarship and to direct the program through re-accreditation in 2005.

Nominees and applicants must hold a dental degree and have a strong record as a teacher and scholar consistent with professorial rank. Preference will be given to candidates with significant academic administrative experience. Candidates should understand and support the mission of the school in its roles of teaching, research, patient care and community service and be committed to the university's goals of diversity, academic and clinical service excellence, research growth and interprofessional education and practice.

The review of applications will begin April 30, 2004, and continue until the Dean is selected. The position is available July 1, 2005 but an earlier start date will be encouraged to allow for the most effective transition. Candidate applications should be sent with a letter addressing qualifications, curriculum vitae and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of at least 3 individuals who have agreed to provide letters of reference to: Eleanor V. Howell, Ph.D., Chair of Search Committee, Dean, School of Nursing, Creighton University, 2500 California Plaza, Omaha, NE 68178.

Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Creighton University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

FULL-TIME POSITION AVAILABLE School of Dental Hygiene

The Faculty of Dentistry, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, is seeking applications for a full-time, limited term, possibly leading to tenure track, position in the School of Dental Hygiene commencing July 1, 2004. The 2-year limited term will be fully credited to the time frame of the probationary tenure track position, if granted. The position requires a minimum Master's degree, teaching and practice experience and evidence of scholarly activity. Preference will be given to candidates with a PhD. Academic rank and salary will be based on the successful candidate's qualifications, experience and achievements. It is expected that the successful applicant will have demonstrated experience in teaching and administration of dental hygiene courses, clinical teaching and scholarly activity and be eligible for licensure in Nova Scotia as a dental hygienist. If eligible for licensure in Nova Scotia, there will be an opportunity for 1 day per week of private practice.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is an Employment Equity/Affirmative Action employer. The University encourages applications from qualified Aboriginal people, persons with a disability and racially visible persons. Applications will be received until May 31, 2004, or until position is filled.

Dalhousie University is one of Canada's leading teaching and research universities, with 4 professional Faculties, a Faculty of Graduate Studies and a diverse complement of graduate programs. Collaborative and interactive research is encouraged, as is co-operation in teaching among the Faculties. We inspire students, faculty, staff and graduates to make significant contributions to our region, Canada and the world. Dalhousie is located in Halifax, Nova Scotia, a vibrant capital city and the business, academic and medical centre for Canada's east coast.

Applicants should submit a letter of application with curriculum vitae and 2 or 3 reprints of any research publications and the names, addresses and internet addresses of three referees to:

Dr. H.A. Ryding, Chair
Search Committees
Faculty of Dentistry
Dalhousie University
Halifax, NS B3H 3J5
