The National Dental Examining Board of Canada
Deputy Registrar

The National Dental Examining Board of Canada (NDEB) is responsible for the establishment of qualifying conditions for a national standard of dental competence for general practitioners, for establishing and maintaining an examination facility to test for this national standard, and for issuing certificates to dentists who successfully meet this standard.

The role of Deputy Registrar of NDEB is being created to assist the Registrar with the increasing work of his role, to provide back-up to him, and to provide a potential successor. As a well-qualified candidate for this position, you must be a dentist licensable in a province of Canada, and have knowledge of or interest in methods of competency assessment. Because of the very detailed and sensitive nature of the work of NDEB, and the variety of its stakeholders, you will need a broad set of competencies and personal characteristics. These include the ability to function well in an association management role, which necessarily involves managing financial and human resources as well as facilities issues. Personal attributes that will support you well include orientation to detail, confidence when interacting with a variety of groups, skill in building consensus, ability in public speaking, skill in corresponding with individuals and regulatory authorities in writing, the ability to work well with all branches of organized medicine, comfort in dealing with volunteers on a social basis, and willingness to be available for occasional functions in the evening.

In this position, you will need both the ability to delegate and the ability to oversee the work of others so that it is error free and meets exacting standards. Previous experience managing people and working in a smaller organization would therefore be highly desirable. Experience teaching, working with psychometrics, working with volunteers, managing small groups, organizing meetings, reporting to Boards and planning Board agenda would be helpful. Bilingualism is a definite asset.

The new Deputy Registrar is expected to join NDEB in the Summer or Fall of 2009. While ideally he or she would live in Ottawa, the NDEB is open to the possibility of the Deputy Registrar commuting.

To explore this new and vital position, please send your CV to eric.lathrop@rayberndtson.ca, or contact Eric Lathrop or Ron Robertson at 613-742-3211. Your application must be received by 5:00 PM on January 16, 2009.
Dean, Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry

The University of Alberta invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean, Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry, with the appointment to be effective July, 2009.

The University of Alberta in Edmonton is one of the top 100 public teaching and research universities in the world serving some 37,000 students with more than 14,000 faculty and staff. Founded a century ago, the university has an annual budget in excess of $1 billion and attracts more than $490 million in external research funding. It offers close to 400 undergraduate and graduate programs in 18 faculties.

The Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry is recognized nationally and internationally for the quality of its graduates, the strength of its educational programs, the high caliber of research, and the service it provides Canadians. Working closely with Alberta Health Services and other partners, the Faculty forms one of the premier academic health science centres in the country. Comprised of a number of research Centres and Institutes within 20 departments and 7 divisions, the Faculty employs over 650 faculty members, 1,400 clinical faculty and more than 750 support staff and offers a full range of graduate programs, plus professional degrees in Medicine and Dentistry. Research activities generate more than $220 million annually in grant and contract support, including support from the Alberta Ingenuity Fund and the Alberta Heritage Foundation for Medical Research. With the adoption of the University of Alberta’s bold vision, Dare to Discover, and within the dynamic economy of Alberta, the Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry is poised to advance in this promising clinical and academic environment. To learn more about the Faculty, please visit their website at www.med.ualberta.ca.

The Dean is a member of a community of 18 Deans who, as the Deans Council, act as the senior academic administration of the University. The Dean is responsible for providing dynamic, strategic and visionary leadership to a distinguished faculty of clinicians, teachers and scholars. S/he must possess both a strong record of research and scholarly achievement (MD, DDS or equivalent), as well as a record of success in administration. The demonstrated ability to fairly balance the demands of a highly complex organization is required. A commitment to outstanding clinical care, education, and substantial experience in external relations is critical. This challenging role demands superb interpersonal skills and sound judgment to provide leadership for the continuing development of the Faculty and the University. Candidates must be eligible for registration with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta or the Alberta Dental Association and College.

The University of Alberta hires on the basis of merit. We are committed to the principle of equity in employment. We welcome diversity and encourage applications from all qualified women and men, including persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities, and aboriginal persons.

To explore this exciting opportunity further, please contact Alex Verdecchia or Maureen Geldart at (604) 926-9005 or forward your CV, a letter of introduction and the names of three referees, in strictest confidence to: info@thegeldartgroup.com.
